POLITICS IN OTTAWA.

TORIES HAVE A POW-WOW AND SMOKE THE CALUMET.

Premier Abbott Lays Down His Platform and Counsels Unity—Mr. Langevin Says the Old Policy, with Important Departures, will be the Programme.

OTTAWA, June 18.—In the House this afternoon, Langevin said that the policy of the new Government would be to carry out the policy which has heretofore been that of the Liberal Conservative party, the outlines of which would be found indicated in the speech from the throne. As to the Government's trade and financial policy, it would be found in the budget speech.

Laurier said that to-morrow he would show that while the Government intended following the policy of the late Sir John Macdonald, they had taken a very wide departure from the same.

A Tory caucus was held to-day, McDonnell of Algoma, in the chair. Mr. Abbott was the first speaker, explaining the course he had pursued when called on to form an administration, and pressing upon all to remain united if the party was to stick together. Mr. Thompson followed on the same lines. Mr. Langevin showed how he had sacrificed himself in the interests of the party, and then spoke in favor of Abbott as premier.

Mr. Davie leaves for home to-night.

Mr. Robson is at Stratford and will be here to-morrow, if not to-night.

All the British Columbia members and Senator Reed attended the Tory caucus to-day.

Hon. Mr. Tupper in reply to Mr. Gordon said the Government was aware of the agreement entered into between the United States and Great Britain, which contemplates the passage of an order prohibiting sealing in Behring Sea until 1892. Her Majesty had been advised to the great magnitude of the interests in British Columbia involved, so that there need be no misapprehension concerning the interests at stake, or that compensation would not be provided as indemnity to the vessel owners and crews.

Mr. Mara moved for correspondence relating to the admission of mining machinery into the Kootenay Lake district free of duty. He explained that the object was to ascertain what had been the real difficulty in the matter. Hon. Mr. Bowell said the chief difficulty had been determining whether or not machinery had been manufactured in Canada. An order in council had been passed, however, which would probably meet all difficulties in that respect in future.

A Ministerial caucus has been called for to-day, to give the Premier an opportunity of making the acquaintance of his supporters. It will show the standing to some extent, of Mr. Abbott, when it is known that he will have to receive a personal introduction to at least one-half of the Conservative members in the House of Commons.

It is said that Sir John Macdonald was insured in two policies of £2000 each, in the Standard Insurance Company. This amount he bequeathed equally to Lady Macdonald and Hugh John Macdonald. The executors are Hon. E. Dewdney, Hugh John Macdonald, Fred White and Jos. Pope.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell will act as Minister of Railways temporarily.

The budget will probably be presented on Tuesday.

The debate on Mr. Jamieson's prohibition resolution will be resumed on Wednesday, if in the meantime, the mover, who is a good Conservative, is not induced to let it be shunted.

Abbott Retires from C.P.R.

MONTREAL, June 18.—At a meeting of the C.P.R. board, held to-day the resignation of the Hon. J. J. C. Abbott as a director of the company was accepted, and Mr. T. G. Shaughnessy was elected in his place. Mr. Shaughnessy was also appointed vice-president.

The U. S. Patrol.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18—The United States steamer Thetis, sailed this morning for Behring Sea. She goes there to carry out the orders of the Government in reference to the seal fisheries. The Mohican, which is also destined to go North soon, remained in the bay until noon, and then proceeded to Mare Island, where she will take in sufficient coal to last her on her northern voyage. The United States vessels soon to be at work patrolling Behring Sea in pursuance of the orders issued by reason of the agreement between the Governments of the United States and Great Britain, will make quite a show of force. The fleet will include the Mohican, Thetis, Alert, Rush, and Corwin. It has been also reported that the Marion, which is at Mare Island, would be sent north. This is probably incorrect, however, as it is thought she will go to the Asiatic station as soon as she shall have been fitted up.

Provisions in Chili.

NEW YORK, June 18.—A special from Iquiqui, Chili, via Galveston to the Herald, says: The demand for provisions keeps prices up in spite of the recent heavy importations from San Francisco. Balmaceda has prohibited shipments from the south to ports held by the Congressionalists, thus necessitating the importation of flour and provisions from elsewhere for ports north of Coquimbo. Merchants naturally are lookidg to California to keep up the supplies. The U. S. warships Baltimore and San Francisco will leave at 10 a.m. to-morrow. It is expected that the San Francisco will return here on Sunday. The Baltimore goes to Callao.

A Burning Ship.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The French ship Valparaiso arrived at noon, 226 days from Shields via Valparaiso. On June 16th it was discovered that the cargo was on fire at the main hatch. They cut two planks from the deck and pumped water on the burning coal, and worked three days to get the fire under control. The first day they worked only three hours on account of the heat. They jettisoned 150 tons of coal badly burned. A tug was out this morning and the ship was towed into port.

TERRIBLE CLOUD BURST.

Twenty-Three Persons Killed and Thirty Injured—Awful Downpour of Rain.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 18.—A cloud burst and killed at least 23 people and many mules, besides doing great damage to property at the Conception Mine, in San Luis Polsi to-day. The mine was working full blast at the time, and there was no indication of the impending disaster early in the morning. As the day advanced, however, heavy clouds began to bank up in the south and shortly before noon it began to blow and rain. Then it looked as if the flood gates of heaven had been unloosed. The water came in almost a solid mass, and when the clouds had passed away it was found that houses had been washed away, the mountain streams were raging torrents, the mines were so that they could not be worked, and the men and mules were swept away by the deluge. The latest telegrams place the number of bodies recovered at 23 so far, and 30 more persons are known to have been hurt. Work at the Conception Mine is entirely suspended.

Perhaps They Will not Catch Him.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 18.—Pat Killen, the well-known pugilist was yesterday sentenced to five years' imprisonment, three months for kicking Mauffman and two months for kicking and slapping Miss Lizzie Allen into unconsciousness. Killen ran away as soon as he committed the cruel assault and is now in Chicago but will be brought back here to serve his time, as soon as the officers can locate him.

ATHLETICS.

JORDAN AGAIN THE CHAMPION.

Owing to the fact that the general opinion, due to the absence of Malcolm W. Ford, was that the competition would certainly easily go to last year's winner, A. A. Jordan, less than one hundred persons journeyed to Berkeley Oval, New York, on Tuesday afternoon, June 2, to witness the contest for the individual all around athletic championship of America. As the result proved, however, Jordan had much more difficulty in maintaining his claim to the title of champion than had been anticipated, young Mooney, of the New Jersey A.C., pushing him so close that it was not till the last event on the programme was decided that the winner was known. Those who competed were: A. A. Jordan, New York A. C.; H. H. Baxter, N.Y.A.C.; O. Pulvermiller, Pastime A.C.; M. O'Sullivan, New Jersey A.C., E. W. Goff, Manhattan A. C., and T. J. Mooney, New Jersey A.C. The competitor winning the greatest number of points to be declared the winner of the championship.

TURF.

TRISTAN BEATS TENNY.

More persons were present at Morris Park on Tuesday, June 2, than had been there on the opening day. The reason was that the card offered promised better sport, while the weather was clear and warm, and, as the track was in good condition, very fast time was looked for in the race for the Metropolitan Handicap. This constituted the chief event on the programme, and the starters for it were a grand lot, including the mighty Tenny, Tristan, Clarendon, Ambulance, Riley, Senorita and Tournament—surely a strong field of grand horses. Of course Tenny was made a hot favorite, and he made a most determined bid for the race, but proved unable to concede a year and fifteen pounds to so good a horse as Tristan, although he made the latter break the record to beat him by but a length. The defeat of Tenny was a great surprise to the spectators, but no one could say that he had not had a run for his money, so all were satisfied on the score of fairness. That running with even weights, he would have beaten Tristan no one doubted. Tristan's time, 1:51¼.

THE OAR.

BOAT RACE.

A match race will take place on Saturday at 7:30 p.m., between W. Deasy and C. Smith for $25 a side. Both men are in good training and a good race may be looked for. The race will be over the harbor course.

W. Deasy and T. Watson will row on the same course for the same stakes on Saturday, 27th inst.

The James Bay Athletic Club have decided to send a crew to contest in the four-oared boat race at Vancouver on July 1. This will make the fourth entry for the race, as already two crews from Vancouver and one from Westminster are entered.

The Victoria crew will be made up of the best material in the James Bay club, and their friends prophesy an easy victory for them.

CYCLING.

A bicycle race took place at the Hill last evening between F. Dalby and B. Heisterman. The latter, who rode a Rudge, won in four minutes.

In this morning's edition of the Colonist we notice that the following handicap has been published for the five mile championship race to be held on Saturday next, viz., cushion tires allowed 75 yards in the mile over solid tires and pneumatic tires 125 yards over the same, leaving the pneumatic 50 yards over the cushion. As we do not consider this a fair handicap we will withdraw from the race unless some other handicap can be arranged meanwhile. We are, yours truly,

BANDITS IN TURKEY.

A BRIGAND CHIEF WITH OVER EIGHTY FOLLOWERS.

Chief Justice Coleridge Severely Criticised—"Was He Retained for the Defendants?" was a Question Asked—Mrs. Grimwood Honored by Royalty.

LONDON, June 18.—A dispatch from Constantinople gives an alarming account of the increase of brigandism in various parts of the Turkish empire. In the Turkish province known as Old Servia, a brigand chief, named Mihran, has established himself in the mountains, with about 80 followers, and lives in princely fashion on blackmail exacted from the people of the villages. These are glad to pay for the exemption and protection of their property from injury, and for that purpose each householder pays Mihran a sum in proportion to his possessions, Christians being obliged to pay about double the amount exacted from Turks. Mihran is said to be an Italian and he holds his followers in complete discipline. One of them having been shown to have plundered a peasant, who had punctually paid the blackmail, Mihran had the offender's ears and hands cut off, and sent them in a bag to the injured peasant. Mihran exacts from every one the honors due to the rank of pasha. The Turkish authorities made a demonstration of attacking the brigands abode a few months ago, but withdrew their forces without having done anything of consequence. Mihran remained in seclusion for a few days and then suddenly descended on the villages and collected all the amounts that the peasantry had agreed to pay.

WHOLESALE EXECUTIONS.

A Shanghi dispatch says that the number of executions in that vicinity has not been paralelled since the Tai Ping rebellion. All the more active of the mob leaders have fallen into the hands of the government troops, and have been condemned to death. Kang Ti, one of the men who wrecked the French mission, was condemned to be cut to pieces and the sentence was duly carried out, the executioner having been bribed to make death as prompt and as painless as possible.

A PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS.

The most thrilling story comes from Algieria, of the ravages of the locusts. In many districts, not a sprig remains on a farm, and the inhabitants are in a famishing condition. Their only resort for food is the locusts themselves, of which vast quantities are being consumed. The French colonial authorities are taking steps to stay the plague, as much as possible by the use of scientific means.

THE JEWISH REFUGEES.

A Berlin dispatch says that Herr Isaac, who has had charge of the Berlin committee for the reception of the Jewish refugees from Russia, is in favor of sending the larger portion of them to one of the new Western States of America, where there is still a great deal of unoccupied land. He believes that it is a mistake to dump them all in New York, and that many more would follow agriculture if they were not under the present system too easily led to take up some petty city business already, perhaps overcrowded. Herr Isaac says that the committee have not failed in any meritorious instance to extend needed relief, the money for the purpose coming from Vienna and London, as well as Berlin. There is some complaint of the severity with which the fugitives are treated by the German police, who will not suffer them to remain in Charlottenburg beyond the interval between two trains, families in this way being hurried on to Hamburg or Bremen for embarkation, before they are in a condition to stand a journey. The result is that some are rejected, who, with a day or two of rest upon their first arrival, would have proved entirely acceptable.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE CONDEMNED.

It is a long time since any deliverance on the part of an English judge have been so severely and generally condemned as the summing up of Lord Coleridge in the baccarat case, and the prevailing sentiment was expressed by a learned gentleman thus: "I had not known until to-day that the Lord Chief Justice was retained for the defendant." Another distinguished auditor described the summing up as a supplementary speech for the defendants. "The court presented a scandalous sight, all things considered, during the trial, and I hear that the Queen has expressed her sentiments on the subject with the result that several ladies who it was stated by daily papers, had been present, have been taking great pains to let everybody know that they were not near the court.

MRS. GRIMWOOD HONORED.

The Queen and Princess of Wales are much interested in Mrs. Grimwood, who is now staying with her mother, Mrs. Moore. The Queen sent Lord Cross to see her the other day and the Princess invited her to luncheon, as she is most anxious to hear from her own lips the account of her terrible journey in India. In crossing a river Mrs. Grimwood injured the sinews of one foot and is extremely lame in consequence. It is feared she will always be a little lame, and she has slight wounds in her arm. One man was shot while standing within an inch of her while he was attending to the wounded and fell against her, yet she still continued to work undaunted. Mrs. Grimwood is only 23 years old and has been married three years. Mrs. Grimwood will receive the Victoria Cross in addition to the Red Cross.

CRUSADE AGAINST THE PRINCE.

The newspapers still keep up their attacks upon the prince. As evidence of the attitude of the press and public on the question of royal prerogative, a letter which was published in to-day's issue of the Standard, the Conservative organ, may be cited. The writer of the letter calls attention to the fact that during the visit of the royal prince at Virginia water, Saturday last, some members of the party, constituting the family of the Prince of Wales, violated the law relative to the close season by fishing in those waters. The writer calls upon the local authorities to prosecute the lawbreakers under the statute, and not to exempt from punishment those members of the royal family who may be shown to have violated the law. The fact that this letter was published by the Standard goes far to show the feeling aroused by the actions of the Prince of Wales.

THE COUNTERS.

A "Member of Parliament" writes: I believe the baccarat counters in possession of the Prince of Wales were given to him shortly before the Tranby Croft affair by one of his friends, a member of the House of Commons. He thought no more of having them than if they had been whist counters, but the public take a very different view of the matter, as is proved by the censures already passed upon his conduct by the Wesleyan and other religious bodies.

Her Majesty to Receive the Kaiser.

LONDON, June 17.—Queen Victoria, it is believed, will consent to be present, with her grandson, the German Emperor, on the occasion of his reception at the Guildhall by the city authorities of London. It had been arranged that the Prince of Wales should act as host on the occasion, but since the recent developments the city people are afraid that the occasion might be marked by an unpleasant reception to the Prince, and they have solicited Her Majesty to take the lead in person. Queen Victoria has always been esteemed, but she has recently taken a great bound in popularity. "God Save the Queen" is sung at popular gatherings with a fervor and significance that means something besides loyalty to the crown. It is thought queer that the Prince of Wales is not mentioned among the members of the Royal Family who are participants of the German festival to be given in a few days at the German exhibition.

The Scandal Will be Revived.

DUBLIN, June 17.—Mr. Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea, will be summoned as witnesses for the defence in the action for libel brought by Henry Campbell, M.P. for South Fermagh, and private secretary to Mr. Parnell, against the Cork Herald. The libel consisted in stating that Campbell hired houses for Parnell to use for immoral purposes. The defence claims to possess letters written by Campbell showing the truth of the charges, but Campbell claims the letters are forgeries. The testimony promises to be sensational and will revive the whole Parnell-O'Shea scandal.

NANAIMO NEWS NOTES.

Naming the Streets—A Masonic Picnic—Depredations by Coons—A Dividend.

NANAIMO, June 18.—A few months ago the City Council entertained the idea of posting the names of the streets on the different corners, and a committee was appointed to ascertain the cost of the same. It is presumed the committee made their report and the expense was found to be in excess of what was anticipated, and therefore the matter has been allowed to drop. This matter is not only an important one to the citizens (many of whom don't know the names of the streets,) but to the different travelers who constantly visit here. Indeed, many of our own residents may often be heard enquiring for such and such a street; then again they experience the difficulty of finding a resident as houses are not numbered. The council should not allow so important a matter to pass their notice but to endeavor to satisfy the citizens in this respect.

MASONIC PICNIC.

The Ashlar Lodge of Masons will hold its annual picnic on the "green" on Thursday next, and as every event Masonic has always been a success, it is a foregone conclusion that the picnic will be a good one. Every member of the lodge will have the privilege of inviting a friend, and the refreshments will be supplied from baskets. There is to be a dance on the platform during the evening; suitable music has been engaged for the occasion so that the young folks may enjoy themselves to their heart's content.

AN IMPOSING CEREMONY.

The laying of the foundation stone of St. Alban's Church, on Monday next, promises to be the most imposing ceremony of its kind that has yet taken place in this city. The event will begin at 3 o'clock, and the proceedings will be opened by instrumental music from the Nanaimo Silver Cornet Band. Members of the Masonic Grand Lodge and of Ashlar Lodge will be present in large numbers, and after the stone has been laid, addresses will be delivered from the visiting clergy of Victoria, Westminster and Vancouver. Then a procession will be formed, headed by the band, and will march to the Foresters' Hall, where luncheon will be spread in grand style. The affair will probably last a few hours.

DESTRUCTION OF COONS.

Mr. Flewett, a farmer of Island, related yesterday an account of the loss he experienced last year of fruit by coons. He states the coons would deliberately ascend a tree, notwithstanding that a dog was chained close to it, and wilfully pluck the fruit and throw it on the ground. Mr. Flewett states he has killed no less than fifteen of these pets during the last few months, and he expects they will become more numerous as soon as the fruit has ripened. He says the plum trees and strawberries suffer most, and he intends to keep a sharp look out this year for the little animals.

DIVIDEND OF SIX PER CENT.

At the half-yearly meeting of the shareholders of the New W. C. Co., held at London on May 25, a dividend at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum was declared. The directors were re-elected and the meeting was brought to a close by a vote of thanks to the chairman and also to the board of directors.

PROF. GRANT ON TUPPER.

THE THEOLOGIAN GIVES THE DR. A RECOMMEND.

The Principal of Queen's College Thinks no Other Tory Can Lead—He Arraigns the Railway—The "No Party" Leader Develops a Surprising Love for Tupper.

OTTAWA, June 9.—Rev. Principal Grant has caused a long interview with him on the political situation to be published in the Evening Journal of this city to-night. It is a long penegyric on the Conservative policy of Sir Charles Tupper. He said the Conservatives had carried the late elections, and the majority should now be represented by the man who was most identified with presenting the case to the people. "Unquestionably that man is Sir Charles Tupper. He is condemned by the Opposition for having taken part in the conflict. Well, let him now say, 'I did take part at the bidding of my chief, though by my position a comparative outsider. I will now throw aside that position and step down into the arena, meet my opponents face to face and carry on the Government according to the policy outlined to the people by Sir John Macdonald and myself. By that policy I will stand or fall.' We owe to him all that is good in the National Policy, as well as its very name, which is an inspiration in itself, and the originator of the National Policy is the man best fitted to interpret and guide it as well as to secure its proper enlargement. Do not forget that fiscal policies have to be adapted to the times. They are not like moral or mathematical truths; they are things to be narrowed or enlarged, according to circumstances, and the man who is least of a doctrinaire and most open eyed to the signs of the times is to adapt them to changing circumstances. The man who is inflexible in these matters is the narrow, angular being who fights for all and gets his reward by losing all. Sir Charles Tupper is a free trader, yet he originated the National Policy. He is a free trader still, but he knows that we can no more act without reference to the industrial and commercial facts of this continent than we can act as free agents without reference to fate and the laws of gravitation."

"Do you think that the Conservative party will send for him?"

"How can I know? I am not a member of that party and am not in its counsels. I have not spoken this year to Langevin, Chapleau, Sir John Thompson, McCarthy or any other of its leaders. But one thing I do know: they may try this, that or the other combination without Sir Charles Tupper, but all will fail, for in the end they will have to send for him. But they MAY SEND FOR HIM TOO LATE.

Every man has his limitations, and Sir Charles Tupper has his. It will be useless to send for him when differences have been accumulated or when the citadel has been captured. In a word, they must hang together or hang separately. If they are to hang together they must have one head, and there is only one who combines the necessary age, experience and resourcefulness. If, then, he must come sooner or later, the sooner the better. It will be more gracious on the part of those who will have to work with him and will give him a better chance. Even as it is he will need every man. What a farce it would be to send for him after the fat is in the fire."

"But has not Sir Charles compromised his position with the Grand Trunk Railway?"

"I have not heard both sides of the quarrel, as I do not read the London Times. But all I can say is that the two great railways of Canada had altogether too much to do with our elections. The sooner a law is passed the better. Now it is a crime if you or I pay a voter's traveling expenses, yet a railway company is allowed to pay those of tens of thousands. It is preposterous, and the last election has opened our eyes to this. If the two great railway companies combined, their solid vote would control the country. Everything in the shape of a solid vote is high treason, and against it we must all combine. Fortunately, on the last occasion the Grand Trunk was to a great extent on one side and the C.P.R. on the other. They nullified each other, therefore, but next time they may combine, and then where would we be? I wish Dalton McCarthy would bring in a bill on the lines of his old measure on this pressing matter instead of bothering himself about the Northwest dual language, with which we have about as much to do as we have with the British aristocracy or the amusements in the dogstar. The Northwest can and

CLIPPING THEIR WINGS

WILL TAKE CARE OF ITSELF.

Further, allow me to say that even by his own showing Mr. Seargeant of the Grand Trunk tried to utilise his interview with Sir Charles Tupper by getting him to promise the abolition of the duty on coal. That was the axe he had to grind. Besides, remember that the Grand Trunk is one of the great facts of the country, and that it will exist long after Sir Henry Tyler and Sir Charles Tupper are dead. Neither gentleman can hinder it, so far as it is a Canadian work. Canadians owe nothing to either railroad. Both railroads owe a good deal to us, and the sooner both are made to understand this elementary fact the better for them and for the people of Canada. I would recommend this fruitful line of thought to the independent members in the House of Commons. For instance, it is simply monstrous that we should have to pay three cents a mile for traveling, when on the New York Central a two-cent rate pays well; and and it is still more monstrous that you can buy a first-class return ticket in summer for less than is charged if you travel second-class. In other words, the poor are discriminated against. In this and other ways the railways do what they like; and, since the people give them their franchises, I would like to see a little popular control."

"Sir Charles Tupper is said to be wealthy and that he has made his money out of the public."

"That is all nonsense. Sir Charles Tupper is not as wealthy as he would have been had he kept out of public life. So far as I know, his wealth, whatever it may amount to, has been honorably acquired."

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

France Will Admit Maize Free of Duty—The Cook Islands Federate.

SANTIAGO DE CHILI, June 17.—Official announcement is made that the presidential squadron bombarded Pisagua June 8 for three hours, and Iquiqui the next day. A detachment of troops landed at Tocapilla June 10, collected the duty due Balmaceda's Government on saltpetre and then bombarded Antofagasta. The squadron later occupied Chanaral, and after spiking the insurgents battery released a number of prisoners held by the insurgents.

BERLIN, June 16.—The Minister of Commerce is investigating the coal oil trusts which the German retailers assert aim to supplant them in their business. The retailers assert that the Rothschild family, who own the Russian monopoly, and the Standard Oil Company, of the United States, have entered into an agreement whereby the Standard Oil Company is to control the German market.

BERLIN, June 17.—A terrible accident occurred to-day at Herman's foundry in Dortmund. A chain broke letting the molten iron fall upon eight workmen, three of whom were instantly killed, the flesh being almost entirely stripped from their bones. The other five were so badly burned that they are in a critical condition. All have lost their eyesight.

LONDON, June 16.—In the Commons, Harcourt, in discussing the Manipur outbreak, assailed the Indian government and urged a more just policy in dealing with the native princes of India. Secretary of War Stanhope said that the viceroy deserved the confidence of the people.

BERNE, June 16.—The number of the killed in the Bale accident foots up 130, and the list of the injured to 300. The dead include Dubeck, director of the Jura & Simplon railroad; Dr. Vogele, of Bale, and family; Professor Dubeck and other well-known persons of Bale.

BERLIN, June 17.—Two school boys at Wingen, Vassau, playing brigands, shot and killed their teacher, Schultz, and, having robbed him of his money, watch, etc., fled. They have so far baffled the police, and a detachment of soldiers are searching for them.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, June 17.—A British resident on the Cook Islands has induced the natives to federate and elect representatives who will meet shortly at Raratonga, the chief of these islands, in order to frame identical laws for the whole group.

PARIS, June 16.—The Chamber of Deputies has voted its approval of a duty of three francs on maize, with a provision for the temporary admission of grain if it is to be used in the manufacture of alcohol for export.

BERLIN, June 17.—Monday's hurricane did great damage to all the coast cities. Scores of persons lost their lives at Hamburg, Keel, Stettin and Dantz.

LONDON, June 16.—The idea of an autumn session of the English Parliament has been abandoned. The body will re-assemble in January.

LONDON, June 16.—The census of England and Wales shows a population of 29,000,000, and increase of 3,000,000 in the last decade.

The Canadian Peer.

Sir George Stephen's title in full, as chosen by himself, is "Lord Mount Stephen, of Mount Stephen, Alberta and Dufftown, Scotland." It is almost needless to observe that Lord Mount Stephen will reside in "Dufftown" and not in "Alberta."

Winter Sports.

The gay winter season exposes many to attacks of colds, coughs, hoarseness, tightness of the chest, asthma, bronchitis, etc., which requires a reliable remedy like Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam for their relief and cure. Known as reliable for over thirty years. The best cough cure.

3 PRACTICAL POINTS

One of the most successful German physicians gave as the secret of his wonderful success these three important points:—

1. Keep the Head Cool,
2. Keep the Bowels Open.
3. Keep the Feet Warm.

These conditions are not so easily obtained as one would think. Why? Because without pure and healthy blood a vigorous circulation cannot be kept up, and because the food and occupation of most people tends to clog up the bowels and produce constipation. The success of B. B. B., like that of the German physician, lies in so purifying the blood and regulating the bowels, liver and stomach, that these three conditions are fulfilled easily, and disease can find no lodgment in the body.

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

B B B

This medicine does purify the blood and cure all diseases arising from impure or unhealthy blood. It does regulate the entire system and cure constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache, scrofula, skin diseases, rheumatism, and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. During the past ten years over one million bottles have been sold in Canada, and, although we guarantee every bottle to do all we claim, we have not received a single complaint.

ALDERMEN IN SESSION.

THEY RUSH THROUGH A LOT OF BUSINESS.

A Police Magistrate Appointed—Home for Poor and Destitute Discussed—The Old French Hospital Recommended—A Committee Appointed.

The regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last evening Mayor Grant in the chair and Ald. Renouf, Robertson, Coughlin Munn, Holland, McKillican, Smith and Hunter present. The minutes of the last meeting having been read the clerk read the COMMUNICATIONS.

From J. H. Brownlee re the Mount Tolmie park, as follows:

To the Mayor and Council, City of Victoria:

GENTLEMAN—Being given to understand that it is the policy of your Council to acquire for public park purposes, suitable sites adjacent to the city, on reasonable terms, they to submit the following offer.

1. The city to agree not to alienate the property, but to use it for public park purposes forever.

2. The city to pay actual cost of carriage drive now being built to the summit of Mount Tolmie, to erect a pavilion on the summit not to cost more than $1000, and further to build a 6 or 8 foot pathway between park and properties.

3. The total cost to the city to be say $3000.

With the above conditions as a basis, the undersigned is prepared to convey to the city in fee simple about 20 acres of land as indicated by green color on map attached. Also acreage will be a per ratio cost.

Should your honorable body decide to refer this proposition to the park committee I shall be pleased to drive that body to the park at any time that may be appointed by the chairman.

The letter was read and referred to the Park committee.

The secretary of the Jubilee Hospital asking the council to meet the board of directors of the Jubilee Hospital re the purchasing or renting of the old French Hospital for the poor and destitute.

Mayor Grant was of opinion that the council should take action immediately as a home for the poor and destitute was necessary. The city was obliged to take care of them by an act of parliament.

The matter was referred to the Finance committee with power to act.

P. C. McGregor, stating that the residents of Fernwood had not yet been supplied with water from the city mains as required by a petition some time ago.

The letter was received, the petitioners to be notified that the water committee had reported that the matter would be attended to as soon as the Fernwood main is connected.

The mayor said it was imperative to extend the mains as it was the means of stopping many people from building in the upper part of town.

Ald. Renouf said if the chairman of the water committee would bring in a by-law to assess those who are to be benefitted by the four inch main Victoria would have the mains extended.

The Mount Royal Milling & Flouring Company asking that the bonus offered by the city for the erection of their mills be paid. Referred to the finance committee.

C. D. Mason, asking that $50 that Major Clapman paid to the city as a commercial traveler be refunded. Mr. Mason said there was no by-law authorizing the council to collect the amount.—Referred to assessment committee.

Mayor Grant said there was a by-law imposing a tax on those travelers that sold to private individuals, and they should be taxed. Of course it was different with legitimate travelers.

The city of Whatcom, inviting the Mayor and Council to be present at the arrival of the first through C.P.R. train at Whatcom June 22nd.—Received and the invitation accepted, the clerk to telegraph accordingly.

Barrett & Carpenter, stating that a deputation of the citizens of Port Angeles would be here on Friday to confer with a committee of the council re railway connection.

It was decided to hold a special meeting on Friday evening to meet them.

Mayor Oppenheimer, asking a donation for the provincial exhibit.—Received and referred to finance committee.

Proprietors of the Northwestern Review, enclosing a copy of a paper to be issued by them descriptive of Victoria, and asking that the city assist them by purchasing $5000 worth.—Referred to printing committee with power to act.

PETITIONS.

Residents of upper Fort street, stating that as they heard the Tramway Company were going to lay double tracks, they asked that the council see that the rails are laid properly. Also, that the roads be kept in order around the rails.—Received and referred to the city surveyor.

TENDERS

Were received for the grading of Saanich road from the following: Mel[illegible], $1975; H. H. McDonald, $1975, rock two cents per yard extra; Jas. Baker, $2306, rock $2.50 per yard; Noel Leclaire, $3800; H. Courtney, $1920, $2.50 per yard for rock; J. W. Haggerty, $1920, rock $2 per yard.—Referred to street committee.

BY-LAW.

The by-law to amend the revenue by-law, 1891, was read a first time.

REPORTS.

The street committee recommended that the city barristers be instructed to prepare a conveyance for the taking over of the property offered for sale by Capt. Rodlin and others for widening Pandora avenue.—Adopted.

Cemetery committee, stating that the map of the cemetery is incorrect, and recommending that new maps be prepared. Also that they feel it desirable that the churches having plots report immediately upon the sale of plots to the cemetery committee. Adopted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Ald. Smith called the attention of the board to the bad condition of Government street. He thought the council should attend to it immediately.

Ald. Renouf said that it should be left alone until the wagons that are hauling from the excavations now going on are through. The wide tires he thought, was the cause of the condition of the streets.

Ald Coughlan re the property known as the gravel pit, belonging to the city. It could be graded and cut up and sold to good advantage.

Ald. Munn said the $3000 donated towards the park at the beginning of the year had been expended and he recommended that $2000 more be put aside for the park. The trees and nursery need attending to and he moved that $2000 be set aside for the park.

Ald. Coughlan seconded the motion as the money was urgently required.

Ald. Smith wanted to know where the $2000 was coming from.

The mayor—The same place where the street committee got the $14,000 that they have overexpended.

Ald. Holland also objected to it.

Ald. Coughlan said the matter was, is the city going to keep up their park or not.

The Mayor said in the attractive cities of the United States more money was spent on parks than not. Those cities had found that it paid.

Ald. Munn said the park was one of the most valuable assets the city had. It is the only place that the city has to use on holidays.

The motion to place $2000 at the disposal of the park committee was passed.

The council then went into committee to consider applications for police magistrate.

After having been in the committee room for some time the council adjourned until to-morrow evening when the name of the new police magistrate will be made known. There are four candidates for the position.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

Ald. McKillican gave notice that he would introduce a by-law to amend the cemetery by-law.

Victory Always the Reward.

It is with great pleasure and satisfaction that we are permitted to lay before the newspaper readers of Canada the following facts, as well as testimonial which were recently sent to our office in a voluntary way.

A gentleman well and widely known in the Eastern Townships and who is greatly interested in agriculture, had suffered some months with kidney disease, which, with a condition of nervousness, rendered his life miserable and unpleasant.

He speaks thus: "I feel it necessary to say something in regard to your splendid remedy, called Paine's Celery Compound; it has just cured me of a bad attack of kidney disease from which I suffered great pain. I was also weak and very nervous for a time, and the doctor afforded me only a small measure of ease. Hearing of your great Compound I used it, and thank God for the good it has done me. After using four bottles I feel restored and as strong and healthy as ever; I feel no more nervousness, and I am enabled to sleep as soundly as a child."

We hear of scores of such cures every month resulting from the use of Paine's Celery Compound. No other remedy of the present day is doing such good work, and no other has ever proved so popular with our Canadian people.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW.
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the DIXSON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

A TUPPER ADVOCATE.

DR. GRANT, the President of Queen's College, Kingston, and a somewhat advanced thinker, politically and theologically, has given his views to the public on the all-absorbing question of the Conservative leadership. DR. GRANT has hitherto posed, and somewhat conspicuously, as a no-party man, and it will be a surprise to his many friends to learn that he is an advocate of Tupperism, which is the most immoral and the most partizan phase of Canadian politics. But his opinion, of whatever value it may be, will have some weight, if only as showing the poverty of the Conservative party in men capable of leading. It is not a compliment to be told, by a divinity professor, that TUPPER is the only MOSES in a party containing an ABBOTT, a LANGEVIN and a THOMPSON. But Prof. GRANT, who is not consistently othodox in his pulpit utterances, may be expected at times to give evidences of unsoundness in political matters. Having endorsed TUPPER, the Globe significantly advises DR. GRANT in future to eschew the discussion of great moral questions.

MINING MACHINERY.

Mr. MARA, we observe, has called for correspondence relating to the admission of mining machinery into Kootenay, duty free. His object was to ascertain what had been the real difficulty. Mr. BOWELL rose to explain that he was equally as anxious as Mr. MARA in the matter, and promised that an order-in-council, should be issued which would set at rest the questions in controversy. All this is very plausible, but it will scarcely deceive those who have been affected by the dilatory and mischievous methods of business practised by Dominion officials in relation to anything in which they are not specifically interested. The Government from the start were opposed to admitting mining machinery free. The insertion of the proviso that no part of mining machinery that could be manufactured in Canada should be admitted free was purposely inserted to befog the situation and leave the question open to protracted debate. This Mr. MARA knew at the time, and in fact so did all of the British Columbia Contingent, but none of them insisted that the matter should be definitely settled then and there. Shall it be that owing to the laziness of British Columbia representatives, except in the matter of free mutton, that miners must wait two years for the Government to settle on what parts of mining machinery are or can be manufactured in Canada? The contention is childish. After five more years of this kind of work the British Columbia electorate will probably discover that they have been misrepresented long enough.

"CANADA SHALL AND MUST LIVE"

The unction with which sundry Tory organs are repeating LAURIER'S remark "Canada shall and must live," would suggest to the outsider that the condition of Canada is desperate, whereas, just the reverse is the case. Canada, it cannot be doubted, would profit immensely by closer trade relations with the States; that, however, her condition is desperate, that by the withdrawal of Sir JOHN from the scene, she is liable to collapse, as Mr. LAURIER'S observation would seem to imply in the sense that the Tories use it, is the reverse of true. Canada, generally speaking, was never more prosperous than she is to-day, nor never sounder politically. The annexation tendency is confined to an insignificant minority. In proportion to population they are fewer than in 1849 when the present Premier signed an annexation manifesto. And, by the way, this reminds us that Mr. ABBOTT has never expressed contrition for this disloyal act. He stands to-day, as far as any expression of regret for his disloyalty is concerned, just where he did forty-three years ago. Would it no be a good idea to obtain from Mr. ABBOTT a profession of political faith? If, as the Tories construe Mr. LAURIER'S phrase, Canada is in a bad way, and Mr. ABBOTT is of the same mind, how are loyal Canadians to know that he will not secretly betray his trust? If annexation was good in 1849 it must be good now. Unless Mr. ABBOTT can make people know that he is no longer an annexationist the choice of the Tories is little less than an overt act of treason.

It is amusing to read in Tory sheets the prognostications of dire consequences to trade and Canadian nationality that would follow unrestricted reciprocity, when on the other hand they endorse an unconverted annexationist for Premier. The fact of the matter is, it is all party and flesh pots with our friends, the loyal Tories. To-morrow, if Mr. ABBOTT should declare for unrestricted reciprocity, our Tory contemporaries would scream as loudly for it as they have brayed against it.

HOW TO BE SETTLED.

The Tacoma Ledger, discussing the Behring Sea modus vivendi, says:

"This puts an end to the slaughter of the seals for this season, or will do so as soon as war ships can be sent to the sealing grounds. It also puts a matter, which a hundred years ago would have led sooner or later to open war, into the hands of a few lawyers who will adjust it readily enough at some fashionable watering place. Such is the triumph of modern progress. Instead of sending a few million dollars' worth of war ships out to blow each other to pieces, we invest a few thousands in statesmen, stenographers, stationery and champagne, and there you are."

"Yes, the statesmen will settle the matter, but in whose interest? In the interest of monopoly, of course. That seal life shall be preserved, it will be found necessary to restrict sealing to a company or two who will pile up their millions. Does the Ledger want to know how the question will be settled? Two companies will, in all likelihood, be permitted to kill seal in Behring Sea, one an American and one an English company. Common people will not figure in the business at all, except as hirelings.

THE MID-AIR LINE.

That we shall soon have a flying machine appears evident in the fact that a company with a capital of $10,000,000, with $1,000,000 paid up has been organized at Burlington, Iowa. The air-ship, of which J. PENNINGTON is the inventor, will take its initial flight, it is said, July 4th, and will attempt to carry forty passengers. Its destination is New York. If this aerial ship should prove a success what will become of railway stock, vehicles in fact, of all kinds? There is this feature about it, what about break-downs in mid-air. Suppose, at an altitude of half a mile, or for that matter a hundred feet or so, the machinery should cease to work? We anticipate the crash that would follow with fear and trembling. The ordinary railway smash would be nothing beside it. Nobody would be left to tell the tale. Perhaps a sort of parachute will be provided to lessen the descent. Parachutes, however, are uncertain. Sometimes they work and sometimes they don't. On the whole land traveling is to be preferred.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Five thousand citizens of St. Paul have signed a petition to have the Grand Opera house there closed on Sunday nights.

At the Methodist conference meeting at Brockville some speakers expressed their readiness to agree to compensation in order to secure prohibition of the liquor traffic.

Professor CLARKE, at the Toronto synod meeting, expressed the belief that prohibition fanatics have done more to hurt the cause of true temperance than any other people.

The bill providing a new constitution for federated Australia has already been taken up in the New South Wales Assembly, and was challenged by an amendment to the Address in reply to the Governor's speech. The motion was treated as one of want of confidence, and was defeated by a vote of nearly two to one.

Mr. BOWDICH, for the Boston Citizens' Committee, has been investigating the administration of the city departments of the Hub, and finds that over $75,000 could have been saved the city treasury last year by the adoption of the contract system in preference to day labor. According to the Gazette the experience of Montreal has been contrary to this.

The following paragraph found in the Toronto Mail, it has been suggested to us, might appropriately be applied to Victoria: "Our aldermen give up a large amount of time and effort to the city's service. They work long hours for nothing, and if their knowledge is always as great as their zeal, it cannot be denied that many of them serve the city well. The remarks which have been made in some quarters as to the extravagance of paying them their expenses when they go out to represent the city are as uncalled for as they are ungenerous."

A correspondent of the Montreal Gazette wants to know the proper pronunciation of the word baccarat. It seems to be as varied as that of the word depot. Some make the last syllable rhyme with cat, and some with raw; others, again, give it the sound of rah, while there is even authority for baccar-row. Perhaps, in view of the late unpleasantness, the "row" is most appropriate.

Four or five years ago farmer GEO. HUTCHINS, of Ancora, N.J., died, leaving $12,000 to disseminate the HENRY GEORGE works. The heirs contested the will and the case has been carried through nearly all the courts of the State. The only reason it is not carried further seems to be because the estate is exhausted. The legatee has received $266 and there is only $318 left.

The present appears to be an unfavorable time for colonial borrowing in England. Queensland recently offered a loan on the London market, and although it was known that one-half the proceeds were to be applied towards repayment of an old six per cent. loan, and the colony was economizing, the subscriptions were very small. The list is to remain open at the Bank of England, and more will doubtless be taken up; but the lesson which the Economist draws from the circumstances is that "it would be better for the colonies to refrain from borrowing altogether for the time being. No active subscription is possible except upon terms that must involve a material and permanent sacrifice.

A Pilgrimage of Death.

CALCUTTA, June 16.—The Times of India asserts that one-third of the pilgrims that go from Bombay to Mecca never return; that they die, owing to the overcrowding of the steamers or owing to diseases or violence on the land journey from Jedda. The Times calls upon the Government to enquire into the matter.

A Millionaire Insane.

NEW YORK, June 18.—H. Victor Newcomb, who has been counted one of the millionaires of New York, and who up to a year or so ago was one of the biggest and boldest speculators in Wall street, has been committed to an asylum for insane in the neighborhood of New York.

A. M. Muir yesterday awarded the contract for J. A. Sayward's new residence to be built on the corner of Fairfield road to A. J. Woodward. The cost of the new residence will be about $10,000.

A New Agency.

H. W. S. Edmunds has opened a Japanese agency in the old Standard building, Government street. A special feature of the business will be to supply cheap Japanese labor, such as house and farm servants, to employers.

Preliminary Meeting.

A preliminary meeting of the W. C. T.U. was held this afternoon to make arrangements for the annual convention of the Union which will take place in about two weeks. Nothing definite had been arrived at up to the time of going to press.

They Have Gone.

A gentleman who is well acquainted with the Chinese of this city, told a TIMES reporter last evening that very few of the Chinese passengers who came across on the steamer Zambesi are in the city. They have almost all found their way to the American side.

Victoria and the Orient.

The steamer Batavia, the second steamer of the new line between Victoria and the Orient, left Kobe last Monday and is due here towards the end of the month. The Sussex, also of the new line, will sail from Hongkong June 20th. Both steamers will have good cargoes.

Out of the Dock.

The steamer City of Seattle came out of the Esquimalt dock this morning, after having been cleaned and a new wheel put in position. The latter job was done under the superintendence of Chief Engineer Lent, of the City of Kingston. The Seattle is now in the hands of the Albion Iron Works, having her boilers and machinery repaired.

Y. M. C. A. Straw Ride.

About three score of the members of the Y.M.C.A. went out on an old fashioned straw ride last evening. The ride extended as far as Mount Tolmie and it was late before the party returned. It was a jolly party and every one enjoyed themselves thoroughly, assisted by the lunches that the young ladies took along with them.

For Mount Tolmie.

Arrangements have been made for a regular passenger service between the city and Mount Tolmie park. Busses will connect with the tram car every other trip, at the Jubilee Hospital in the morning, and every trip in the afternoon. This is a splendid chance to give the children an outing. Free return tickets will be supplied at H. E. Crossdaile & Co.'s office.

General Assembly.

The lay and clerical delegates from British Columbia to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in session at Kingston are:—Ministers—Alex. Dunn, Warnoch; P. McF. Macleod, D. Fraser, Victoria; E. D. McLaren, Vancouver; W. J. Mills, New Westminster. Elders—Hon. John Robson, Victoria; J. G. Brown, New Westminster; Donald Fraser, Kingston.

For Alaska.

The steamer Mexico with 50 excursionists for Alaska, arrived at the outer wharf at 7 o'clock this morning. Among the excursionists there was no one of national or international note except a score of that well-known genus the Kodak traveler, who uses all his films up before he reaches Alaska. The Mexico had also about 500 tons of freight on board when she cleared at 11 a. m.

Western Gate Preceptory.

The Western Gate Preceptory, a branch of the Knight Templars, is about to be instituted in Victoria. It will have about 25 charter members and the following officers will be chosen: A. R. Milne, preceptor; A. McKeown, marshal; W. J. Quinlan, constable; E. Langley, registrar. A number of Knight Templars from the Sound will be present to conduct the installation of the lodge.

Gorge Road Church Festival.

The ladies of the Gorge Road Methodist church gave a strawberry and ice cream festival in the church last evening. There was a good attendance, and the edibles and an excellent musical programme which was carried out during the evening, were highly enjoyed. The festival was for the benefit of the building fund of the church, which was materially increased by the evening's entertainment.

A Teachers' Excursion.

E. E. Blackwood, agent of the N.P. railway, received instructions last evening to sell tickets between Victoria and Toronto and return for $84.45 during the meeting of the National Education Association, which commences in Toronto next month. The tickets will be sold from July 3rd to 8th, inclusive, and to return until September 30th. The party has been made up in Seattle and Tacoma to go by the N.P.R., and it is likely that several Victoria teachers will join that party.

Broke His Leg.

Charles Luney, son of contractor Luney, met with quite a serious accident last evening, which resulted in his breaking a leg. He was at work on Jensen's hotel, and while coming down a ladder he slipped and fell quite a distance to the ground. When picked up it was found that he had a compound fracture of the left leg. He was conveyed to his home, where the fracture was reduced. It will be several weeks before he will be able to go to work again.

Merchants Luncheon.

From 11:30 until 2 o'clock and Lowenbrau at the Bank Exchange.

Reduced Rates.

It was announced some time ago that the P.C.S.S. Company intended to sell round trip tickets to San Francisco at reduced rates. The company is now doing this and travelers can hereafter go to and from San Francisco for $36.

The Douglas Returns.

The steamer Sir James Douglas returned this morning from Baynes Sound having finished her work among the beacons and buoys of that vicinity. Capt. Gaudin reports very bad weather in the gulf for the past few days and everything very backward up the coast. The steamer will leave for Bonilla point in a few days.

Excursion Party.

The steamer Michigan arrived this morning from Portland. There were a large number of excursionists on her, who are taking the round trip. To-day they took a drive around the city. This is the last trip the Michigan will make for the U. P., as the lease of that company has expired, and in future she will run under the management of her owners, Messrs. Caldwell & Borville.

Collector Bradshaw Removed.

The officers of the steamers Mexico and Umatilla brought a report with them this morning from Port Townsend that a telegram was received there last night removing Collector Bradshaw from office. The report, if true, will not be a surprise as it is only the culmination of a political fight that has been going on in Washington among the Republicans for a year past.

A Coming Treat.

The Methodist Sunday school children of the city, including Victoria West, James Bay and Esquimalt, will be entertained at a picnic on Dominion Day at Peddar Bay. The excursion to that beautiful resort, on the Princess Louise, will be a delightful trip, and no doubt will be participated in by old as well as young people. The fare will be for adults $1, and 50 cents for children.

The Dane Disappeared.

The case of the two men charged with swindling a Dane on the Umatilla a few days ago came up in the Provincial police court this morning. When the case was called the Dane, who was the prosecuting witness, was not present and search throughout the city failed to reveal him. The case was then remanded until Saturday next and the prisoners released on their own recognizance to appear at that time. Christ Ahlefelt, the Dane, has not been seen since last Tuesday and it is generally believed that he left for down the Sound.

Will be an Improvement.

Plans are being prepared by Mr. John Teague for a four-story and basement brick block on Government street for Young Bros. Operations on the building will not be commenced however until the sewers have been laid on Government street. It is also understood that Mrs. F. Sehl will build on her property adjoining Mr. Young's. This would only leave one wooden building on the west side of Government street between Fort and Johnson, as the building recently used as an auction room will come down to make room for Mr. Russell's new block.

The New Lodge.

A meeting was held in Blue Ribbon Hall, Esquimalt, last evening, for the purpose of organizing a lodge of the C. O.O.F., M.U. The promoters were well satisfied with the encouragement they received, the requisition receiving a great many signatures. Sergt. Exel, of the naval department, J. Williams, of H.M.S. Pheasant, and J. D. Campbell co-operated with W. E. Ottaway, D.D.G.M., in wiring congratulations to the Grand Lodge, now sitting at Woodstock, Ont. P.N.G. Bro. Fullerton, of Waverley, and Messrs. Roberts and McKay, of Pride of the West lodge, were present. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday evening.

Police Court Record.

The police court held a session this afternoon to clear the docket of a few cases. Sophy, an Indian beauty from Neah Bay, was charged with being found with an intoxicant on her person consisting of a bottle of brandy. With good sense she plead guilty and was discharged by Johnson, S.M., in consideration of her testifying against Ah Lung, an ugly looking heathen, who sold her the liquor. Ah Lung received three months in jail at hard labor for his offence, as he has been before the court several times before on the same charge. Philip Kennedy, charged with attempting to burglarize the store of Fell & Co. last Saturday night, was on trial as the TIMES went to press.

Invitation to Join.

Mr. F. Eworthy, secretary of the B.C. Board of Trade, has just had circulars printed for distribution among the business men of the city, calling their attention to many benefits to be derived by a community having a large board of trade. He invites them all to co-operate with the board by becoming members, and also calls their attention to the work done by the board during the past year. Those sending in their applications for membership before the annual meeting to be held on the 3rd of July will only have to pay an entrance fee of $20, but after that the fee will be raised to $30. He also requests those who intend to bring business up to send in their notices in good time so that the board will know what business is coming up.

The Indians Contented.

Superintendent of Indian Affairs A. W. Vowell returned last evening from Nanaimo, via Vancouver. His visit, he said, was only a general tour of inspection, and had no particular significance. Chief Louis had called on him recently, and said that the Indians wanted to see him, and that they were all on the reservation preparatory to starting away on their summer's work. He found them all contented, and had no complaints to make of any kind, and were engaged in fixing up and constructing new roads, which he assisted them in by furnishing them with the necessary tools. He saw Mr. Lomus, Indian agent for the Quamichans, who is now engaged in taking the Indian census. It has not been completed yet, but is progressed sufficiently to determine the fact that their numbers have not decreased, and possibly there might be a slight increase. When the steamer Boscowitz returns North, Mr. Vowell will accompany her to Alert Bay, and make an extended tour of inspection of the Indians of that section.

Lady Brooke?

Having been asked the maiden name and family history of Lady Brooke, wife of the future heir of Warwick, with whom scandal connects the Prince of Wales, the question was referred to an English gentleman, who has replied as follows: "Hearsay is a bad guide, but, somehow I think she has not wrongly informed me upon the question of Lady Brooke's identity. I think she is one of the Beresfords. The females of the family, in common with the Pagets, are regarded as the 'finest' women among the aristocracy. The domestic annals of their varied exploits do not present them as devotees to the chaster virtues. There is a difference between a 'fine woman' and a 'beautiful woman.' In my judgement Lady Brookes to her chin might have sat as a model for the Venus Medicis; beyond this she would have served as the presentment of any portly dame in a Roman ghetto. And greatly 'the human face divine' is an index to the soul."

THOSE WHO NEED A HOME.

Old Time Miners Whose Lives Are Slowly Ebbing Away.

At last night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen, a communication was read from the board of directors of the Jubilee Hospital, asking the aldermen to meet them for the purpose of obtaining the old French Hospital as a home for the aged, poor and destitute. Every citizen who has been spoken to on the subject thinks the scheme to procure this property a good one, at least temporarily. The general opinion was that the council should rent the old hospital until a more suitable place could be found outside the city, where vegetables and other products could be raised.

A TIMES reporter, anxious to show how urgently the home is required, took a trip around the cabins occupied by old men, who are unable to take care of themselves, and who are living as some people would not allow dumb animals to live.

The first one found was Wm. Raby, the one-legged man, who has been in jail several times for vagrancy. He was looking for Mayor Grant to get a dollar or so with which to buy food. He came to the province in 1856 with his father, but could never work much on account of his crippled condition. He owns a cabin and lot on Humboldt street, which he cannot be blamed for not parting with, as he is a man who with care will live for many years yet, and naturally wants to keep a roof over his head.

A man named Smith, also one of the old timers, is in jail. It is true that he spends every cent he gets on whiskey, but he should nevertheless be taken care of. He is too old and sick to work.

Jno. Kane, however, is one of the men that needs a home worse than any of the others. He is living in an old cabin on Humboldt street, being taken care of by Geo. Etheridge, who has got far from nice work. The old man is 67 years of age, and unable to take care of himself, his memory having left him. He came to the Province in 1857, was always industrious and saving, so he now has over $1000, which is in the hands of the mayor, and which, of course, is enough to keep him. He will be remembered as the man who about six years ago looked after the drillshed. He has no relations to take care of him, and would be no expense for a home for the poor, as he is perfectly willing to keep himself.

August Miller, a German, aged 62 years, is also in an old cabin, which he felt ashamed to throw open to the reporter and his companion. To the question "How are you feeling?" the old man answered "Pretty rough. I am only waiting to die." He is one of the miners who came to the Province in '58, and, until disabled, he followed up that vocation. He, like others, had at times big fortunes, only to lose them again. His last bad speculation broke him down, and he has been sick ever since. He hoped that the council would hurry up and have a home for he and others, for he could not stand living as he had been much longer.

An old man named Lewis, who was recently burnt out of his cabin on Discovery street, also needs helping, as he has not got a cent in the world, and is living on what he can beg. He is 78 years old.

Johnson, the man who at one time owned the Gorge hotel, and an old pensioner neamed Queensbury, and others, are also in the same unfortunate condition, and are badly in need of help.

SCHOONER SEA GULL WRECKED.

Two of the Crew Saved—The Captain and Two Others Missing.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz arrived down from Naas and other ports yesterday afternoon, bringing with her a quantity of red cedar, box lumber and skins. She reports having passed a United States cutter in Goletas Channel, bound north, but did not speak her.

A very interesting ceremony, in the shape of a christening, took place on the trip up. The infant daughter of Mr. Bonner, of Harsby Bay, was baptised by Rev. T. Crosby. The little infant, in commemoration of her first voyage was christened Barbara, after the steamer.

The canneries were all ready to commence work on the 15th and a good season is expected, and one of the canneries on the Naas had already commenced work on the first catch of the year, and before the Boscowitz left, about 100 cans had been put up, but the fish were hardly good enough to commence to start work on extensively yet. The cannery steamers Caledonian and Florence were giving every satisfaction.

Among the passengers that came down on the Boscowitz were Andrew Reisenbach and a companion named Pomeroy, who formed two of a crew of five on board the schooner Seagull, which left Port Townsend about the 1st of May for Sand Point, Alaska, in command of Capt. Frank White, who is also one of the owners, the other owners being three of the crew. Reisinbach and Pomeroy tell a very sad story of shipwreck and exposure, in which all nearly lost their lives. As it is, it is not yet known that some of the crew have not been lost. After leaving Port Townsend the Seagull had a good voyage until the 10th day out, when it came on to blow very hard, and during the storm she struck hard on a ledge of rocks running out from St. James Point, at the southwestern extremity of Queen Charlotte Island. The blow proved fatal to the little schooner and she began to fill immediately, and almost before the barest necessities could be got into the sealing boats she went down. Capt. White and his four comrades took to the boats and managed to reach the island, where, for three days without fresh water, the gale held them prisoners. On the fourth day the wind had sufficiently moderated to allow of them leaving the island. The two boats were launched, Capt. White and two companions in one and Reisenbach and Pomeroy in the other, and started for Skidegate in the hope of catching a steamer bound for the south. They found, however, that there would be no boat till the 5th of July, and so they started out again in their frail little crafts for the Skeena, which was reached on June 2. The next day a strong southeast gale sprung up, the boats were separated and since then Reisenbach and Pomery have not heard anything of Capt. White and his companions. For fifty hours the men were without sleep, food or water, and it was in a state of the utmost exhaustion that they at last reached Dangeness Island, where they found an Indian encampment. The Indians were very kind to them, one—John Ryan—being particularly so, and everything possible was done to make the men comfortable. After resting for three days they started for Fort Simpson, in the hope that their lost companions would be there, but they were disappointed and returned to the Skeena. At this place Mr. Stapledon, and his bookkeeper, Mr. Robinson, seemed only too willing to do what they could for the ship-wrecked men. Boots and underclothes were provided and everything done to make them comfortable until the Boscowitz came. They have not yet given up their captain and his comrades, and think that they have reached some part of the coast and are making their way slowly down, and may possibly catch the Danube, which will arrive here about the latter end of the month.

The Seagull was a small schooner of 25 tons, and was owned by four of the crew, Capt. White, Reisenbach, Pomeroy, and Geo. Riff. She was valued at $4000.

Capt. White is well known in British Columbia, having commanded at different times the Etta White, Rithet, Princess Louise and Premier. Latterly he has lived in San Francisco, where his wife died nearly a year ago. His step daughter is now a resident of this province.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

COLONEL OF THE FOURTH.

A STORY OF THE WAR OF THE REVOLUTION.

By Bernard Bigby, Author of "Loyal at Last," "My Lady Fantastic," "Ellen's Great Secret," "Fell Among Thieves." Etc., Etc.

Copyright 1891, by A.N. Kellogg Newspaper Co

"Wal, mate, thar ain't much ter tell—leastways I ain't got the gift o' the gab ter make a long story out on't; but when the war broke out folks took this side an' thet, jess es ther inclinations led 'em. Father an' I was fur the Union; and mos' gin'rally our neighbors was seceshes. We lived in a lone farm-house, tol'ble well-to-do, an', es we was in the minority, went about our own bizness without interferin' wi' folks. Mos' of the young fellers roun' us jined the gorillas, an' they set up a cry es those es was not fur 'em was agin 'em an' gev father notice ter leave the kentry. But the ole man was true grit. He jess tole 'em thar was a leaden welcome fur every secesh es crossed his threshold in anger. They'd done some fearful things, them gorillas hed—strung a neighbor o' our'n ter a branch o' one o' his own apple trees an' flogged his wife an' darters. Yes, it ain't no dime novel trash I'm a-talkin' to yer—flogged the wimmen till the blood run down ther backs, so yer kin see my ole dad was doin' some tall talkin' when he gev them the defy. I shall never forgit the night they come. Thar was no one in the house but dad an' me an' my little brother Bill, a young 'un not more n seven years old. We did the best we could, but it warn't no use. They dragged father from the house an' riddled him wi' bullets afore my eyes. I managed somehow or other ter get away to the woods, but not afore I'd made my mark on some o'ther skins; an' jess es they was firing the barns the Union soldiers come up, an' the hull band o' cut-throats scattered."

"An' little Bill?"

Dick Swayne's eyes literally blazed with fire.

"We foun' little Bill lyin' in the brush, bleedin' ter death, with a gun-shot wound in his side."

"Good heavens, Dick! and is this possible in a land like ours? But surely these fiends were not your neighbors, man?"

"Neighbors? Aye—neighbors who hed gone to the same skule es we uns, 'tended the same church, danced, drunk an' played wi' us from the time we was no bigger'n little Bill—but, by the Gord thet made me, they shall pay with a life fur every drop of blood they shed!"

Well indeed did the young Missourian keep his word.

Frank was too shocked by the story he had heard to encourage further conversation, while Swayne, wrapt in meditations of the past, seemed pleased to lie back and smoke in moody silence.

For an hour or two they thus remained, their bodies resting, though their minds were active.

Suddenly the countryman started with a gesture of alarm.

"Hark!" he cried, all alert on the instant.

A few moments of profound silence.

"I hear nothing," Frank said, in an excited whisper.

"The tramp of mounted men," was the answer, "to yer hoss, man, an' hustle lively!"

A minute later and they were going at headlong speed. To Frank's surprise they turned at right angles from the line they were pursuing—for road, you could not call it—and plunged into the creek, up whose rocky stream bed they rode with undiminished speed. This brought them to a clearing, across which they literally flew, urging the panting horses to a maddening gallop; but as they reached the cover of a friendly wood, Swayne drew the rein.

"Hold hard a minute, mate, we must breathe the critters, or they'll hev us sure es shootin'," he cried, wheeling his horse round, and peering through the branches of the trees.

The clearing was a long strip of cornland, lying in a valley between two ridges. Frank and Swayne had crossed it at right angles in its narrowest part, where it was probably not more than fifty or sixty rods from wood to wood.

Ah, here they come!

Not as Swayne and Frank had done, but up the full sweep of the lowland—a long line of straggling horsemen, half a mile away yet, but in full sight of the wary watchers.

"By Moses, but them hyenas ain't on our tracks after all! See that chap a-leadin' 'em—he's the one they're chasin', an' the Lord hev mercy on his soul, ef they catches him."

It was an exciting scene. As Swayne said, the leading man was evidently the quarry of the others, and as they drew nearer it was apparent that he wore the uniform of a Union officer. The chase must have been long and severe, for the horses of all were pounding along with that rolling gait, which told how nigh they were exhausted. In fact, several in the far distance could be seen who had dropped out of the race altogether: only three were within pistol-shot of the fugitive, on whom they were gaining at every stride.

"I allow we're agoin' ter take a han' this game," Dick said, grimly, tening his saddle-girth as he spoke. soon es they git alongside, dash out on 'em, an' holler fur all yer worth—they'll think the woods is full on us, an' you'll see a circus."

So when the thundering hoofs were close upon them, the two young fellows burst out of ambush, yelling like a band of Comanches.

Swayne, with his strong, fresh horse, in the fury of his attack literally rode down the foremost of the pursuers, while Frank hurled himself upon the second, who, however, managed to keep his saddle.

But the rout was complete. Without stopping to look behind them the enemy had turned tail and fled, doubtless believing from the daring nature of the attack that a whole regiment was at their heels.

"Quick, b'ys, to the wood!" Swayne cried, "afore these wildcats kin git ther eyes skinned ter see the trick we've played 'em."

As they rode under cover again Frank turned to examine the man they had rescued. He was a well-built, handsome man of thirty—well bred, too, if one could judge from his clear-cut features.

"Well, boys, you've done me the best turn any one ever did for me in this world, and I only pray to Heaven that if either of you are ever in such a tight fix as I was ten minutes ago you'll find as brave hearts to help you as I've done."

"Amen to that!" Frank said. "Now satisfy our curiosity by telling us who you are and where you are from?"

"Mark Henderson, at your service. Captain of Zagonyi's cavalry, and now—or at least a dozen hours ago—on the staff of General Lyon. I started at dawn with a guide to try and make communication with troops that are supposed to have left Kansas City to come to our aid, but the rascally villain led me right into that nest of hornets you saw buzzing about my ears."

"And I am on my way to General Lyon to tell him that those very troops are hurrying by forced march to join him," Frank ejaculated.

Henderson looked keenly at the speaker.

"It's rather a curious dodge, isn't it?" he said, "to rig you up in private's uniform? What rank do you hold in the service?"

"Just what you see—full private—that is all."

"Then your Colonel must have a fine regiment if his rank and file are filled by such as you. Give me your hand, my boy, you will have your commission before the month is out, or I'm no judge of matters."

"'T appears ter me, you two uns is gassin' a tol'ble sight too much. Wouldn't it be jess es sensible ef yer was ter put a few more miles atween you an' them gorillas afore yer got so tonguey."

The hint was too valuable to be disregarded, so once more they resumed their journey. If they could have gone in a direct line they would have reached Springfield by night-fall, but they were so often obliged to make detours to avoid the enemy that when darkness came on they were obliged to camp in the woods till daylight. And when dawn came the roaring of guns and clattering of small-arms in the near distance told them that for all their dreary ride and headlong speed they were too late.

Up a steep hill before them they rode in haste, and on mounting its crest, though the sky was but just gleaming with the rays of the newly risen sun, the whole panorama of the battle-field lay before them.

"Wilson's creek, by thunder! An' I thought we was ten miles away," Dick Swayne cried, as he dashed his spurs in his horse's flank and galloped down the declivity.

As they rode they could see the armies of either side massing—Ben McCulloch, with his fifteen thousand fighting men from Arkansas—Lyon and Siegel with their five thousand, some of whom had borne themselves so well at Boonville.

In the mad ride down the hillside Frank's horse tripped on a root of a tree, hurling him to the ground with a force that for the time stunned him, and when he recovered his senses, it was only to see the beast hurrying at full speed after his companions.

Picking himself up as best as he could, he started on a run. It was no easy task to reach the Union lines, but he got there at last. By this time Siegel had moved on the right flank of the enemy and driven the Confederate lines back, while Lyon with four thousand men and ten guns had hurled himself against them on the left.

Frank in the hurly-burly of battle was running hither and thither. Suddenly he saw before him a bare-headed man on horseback, whose uniform he recognized at once.

"General Lyon, sir!" he cried, clinging almost breathless to his stirrup-leather, "Colonel Fulton has sent me to tell you that troops from Kansas City are on their way to your relief."

"Too late—always too late!" was the sad reply.

Just then a cry came from the First Iowa Regiment that they had no Colonel.

"Who will lead us?" rang from a hundred throats.

Frank saw General Lyon dash to their front, and heard him cry:

"I will lead you! Onward, brave boys of Iowa!"

Picking up a musket that had fallen from a wounded soldier's hand, Frank threw himself into the ranks of the advancing regiment, ever keeping his eyes on that glorious warrior in front.

Oh, God! what's that? The saber drops from the listless arm, the stately figure reels and falls, and the gallant General drops to the earth with a bullet crashing through his heart.

Why It is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

The New Air

The new air ship travels 200 miles an hour, good time, but none too quick if one wanted Hazyard's Yellow Oil. This peerless, pain-soothing remedy is a prompt and pleasant cure for sore throat, croup, colds, rhumatism, pains in the chest, and face neuralgia. For external and internal use. Price 25c.

Nature requires aid in correcting irregularities at this season, and for both men and women no other remedy equals Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a spring blood tonic. They supply all the constituents necessary to enrich the blood and build up the system. Sold by all dealers, or sent post paid on receipt of price—50c. per box, or five bottles for $2—by addressing Dr. Williams Med. Col., Brockvill Ont.

COUNT MERCIER.

He Speaks in Paris—What he did for the Jesuits of Canada.

In Paris-Canada of May 23. Hon. Hector Fabre's paper published in Paris, is a report of "the Count" Mercier's address to the Jesuit fathers, who gave him and Hon. Mr. Shehyn a breakfast at their college at Vaugirard. In replying to the toast of his health "The Count" said: "I thank you most sincerely for the very kind and complimentary words in which you have referred to myself and companion, and which I feel myself undeserving of. You know that in French law, which is also ours in Canada, those who become beneficiaries have three months' grace granted them for deliberation, following a renunciation of the succession. I think I shall deliberate and decline beforehand. You have spoken, Reverend father, of my devotion to the church. I do not merit your praise. I am a Catholic believing in and practising, and devotion to it is a necessary consequence (cheers). You have also spoken of my devotion to France. Like you, I am also French. I love France, the country of my forefathers. I love as they loved it (cheers). How, then, can I ever forget it? It is the country I think of, for here was fought out in terribly bloody wars and preserved to me the right of speaking my native language and practising my religion (cheers). You have also referred to my devotion for the Company of Jesus. I cannot claim any great merit in that, as I was their pupil for eight years at St. Mary's College, Montreal." After describing his school boy's life at the college, "the Count" went on to say: "they tried to make me an orator, but I am afraid did not succeed (cries of 'No, no'). However, they did succeed in making me a good patriot and a good Catholic. (Bravo). Now the first thing I did when taking care of the affairs of the Province of Quebec in 1887 was to pass a law civilly recognizing the Jesuits. It was just and was consequently done. The second thing I believed it my duty to do, was to render justice to the illustrious company who furnished the missionaries to Canada and the whole of North America. They have spilled their blood everywhere when occasion called for it, and the country we possess to-day, though unhappily separated from France, was preserved to the Catholic church, by their labors and their blood. (Loud cheers). Yes, unanimously, both Houses of the Legislature, in which are many Protestant members, voted for the restitution of the Company's property on paying a sum of $400,000, to be distributed by the Holy Father. The Jesuits have not had all, but it is not my fault. However, we have repaired one of the greatest injustices ever perpetrated in Canada. (Great cheering). I shall tell with pleasure to the Jesuits of Canada that I have met here in this house the same souls, the same minds and the same politeness that I always found in the old days in the College of the Jesuits of Montreal."

CONGRESS AND PARLIAMENT.

Outline of Their Differences in Procedure —Where They are Similar.

Henry J. Ford writes to the New York Independent: The superficial resemblances of form must be very confusing indeed if on reflection the radical difference between Congress and Parliament is not perceived. The constituency of the House of Commons is the whole body of the electors. No member is confined to the district which sends him, but he may offer his services anywhere, and a distinguished party leader may almost take his pick. A Congressman may devote himself to national interests only by the favor of his locality. He can never become so great but that his first business must be to look out for his own district. Parliament represents the nation: Congress represents the States and districts of which the nation is composed. Parliament acts under the immediate direction of the leaders of the party in power. Congress, powerfully acted upon by party as an external agency, but remains essentially diplomatic in its constitution. The distinction may be traced through the respective methods and disposition of the two bodies. It is shown in the public transaction of business by the one and in the transfer of business to the committee rooms by the other. It appears in the impatience of pres and declaimers so marked in the former that once a member of the House of Commons, detected in pulling from a written speech, was so roughly scolded that he resigned his seat; whereas the latter body cannot allow any exigency to extinguish the inherent right of every district to a hearing in the person of its representative. He must not be so dull and incapable that he may not have leave to print a speech or to be allowed his opportunity at all, being set apart for those who want to make speeches which nobody wants to hear.

Under this diversity of methods there is, however, he described a substantial identity of construction. To subject the administration of public affairs to the direct superintendence of public opinion has been the common goal of political progress. In such countries, as the people qualified themselves for the fuller exercise of power, they have extended their rule at the expense of prerogative; in England, by the devolution of crown authority upon a Parliament made responsible to the nation; in the United States, by the direct action of the democratic forces on the presidential office converting it into an organ of popular control. Both the speech from the throne and the President's message have become party programmes; completely so in the former case, imperfectly so in the latter, for the reason that their control has not been extended to direct initiative.

A Story of Von Moltke.

The following is one of the stories of the late General Von Moltke. One day he stopped at a boarding school kept by a parson in a village near his Silesian county seat, and sat down to hear the teacher instruct the scholars—mostly young nobles preparing for the army—on the wars of France and Prussia. The clergyman being called away for a moment, Moltke asked to be allowed to take his place. Before long he asked one of the pupils: "Who do you think was Napoleon's best general?" "My grandmuncle, your excellency, Marshal Ney, Prince of Mos-kwa," was the answer. Turning to another boy, he asked, "who was the bravest of Prussia's generals in the same war?" "My grandmuncle, Marshal Prince Blucher," said he. There was also a descendant of General Zeiten among them. When the clergyman returned, Moltke said, with a humorous glance at his own plain civilian dress: "Oh, my dear Herr Pastor, you should have told me before that I was to find such famous generals represented here." He invited all the boys to visit him at Kreisau, and gave them a most hospitable reception.

COAL

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes.) | THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

(House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other Bituminous Gas Coal the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines o the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel f domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the mo economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

30 BROAD STREET.

THE NEW V. C. COMPANY.

A MAGNIFICENT FIND OF GOOD COAL.

The Indefatigable Efforts of the Company Have at Last Been Crowned with Success—An Immense Area "Won"—Good News for Nanaimo.

Never in the history of the Nanaimo coal industry has a more important discovery been made than has now to be chronicled in behalf of the New Vancouver Coal Company. Only those who have been for years acquainted with the manner in which these mines have been worked can possibly realize the amount of patience, judgment and perseverance required to carry on such an extensive undertaking, wherein, for a long period, disappointment seemed to follow the company at every step. If the top of the bay, directly over the working of No. 1 shaft, could be lifted off, and the many miles of levels exposed, it would indeed present a wonderful picture, and one that would reflect much praise upon those whose cool calculations in continuing the working of this mine, after meeting so many discouragements, have at last been rewarded. But the disappointments and the cost of laying out this mine have now been fully compensated by another discovery, the importance of which can hardly be over-estimated, as it opens up a field of coal which promises to eclipse anything the company have previously met with. From the inception of the No. 3 level, over five years ago, "wants" and "faults" were met with throughout almost its entire course, and although patches of excellent coal were found, the general character of the seam seemed to indicate that the eastern workings of this mine were nothing but a field of troubles. Many months ago a "fault" was met with on this level, and the engineer's report of it was very unsatisfactory, but in spite of this report, work was proceeded with, and the result has fully justified the foresight that was exercised in its continuance, and the result has been the successful striking and opening up of the best field of coal that has yet been found on the Pacific Coast. The discovery is of the highest importance to the company as well as to the city and district. The coal will prove to be superior in quality to any at present received in the San Francisco market; or as our informant states, "It is the coal which the Superintendent has been anxiously expecting to find for many years." None will be more proud than the citizens of Nanaimo, when they learn that the efforts of the company have at last been crowned with success, and that the future working of this mine is now insured for very many years to come. About 18 months ago very little coal was being sent up from this pit, and it was the common talk (even among the best friends of the company) that it must soon be closed down, but, in spite of this disheartening state of affairs the work progressed and the result was the finding of a splendid seam of coal in No. 1 level. Then things became more active in the mine, but the work on No. 3 level (where it was reported a series of "faults" that might be called endless existed) was allowed to go on with the result that it has relieved the company of whatever doubts they may have had as to the future of their output from this mine. It is safe to say that within a very limited period the output of the New Vancouver Coal Company's mines could, if required, be brought up to 4000 tons per day, and when we come to consider that this time last year the company were able to put out little more than 1000 tons per day, it will clearly be seen of how much importance this new find is to them and all who directly or indirectly draw a revenue from the coal industry of the province. It may also be safely stated, that the area of coal "won" by these two discoveries alone in the No. 1 and No. 3 levels of the Esplanade (No. 1) shaft, is alone equal to the total area of the unworked coal in all the other mines in the district.

There are some patent medicines that are more marvellous than a dozen doctors' prescriptions, but they're not those that profess to cure everything.

Everybody, now and then, feels "run down," "played out." They've the will, but no power, to generate vitality. They're not sick enough to call a doctor, but just too sick to be well. That's where the right kind of a patent medicine comes in, and does for a dollar what the doctor wouldn't do for less than five or ten. We put in our claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

We claim it to be an unequalled remedy to purify the blood and invigorate the liver. We claim it to be lasting in its effects, creating an appetite, purifying the blood, and preventing billious, typhoid and malarial fevers if taken in time. The time to take it is when you first feel the signs of weariness and weakness. The time to take it, on general principles, is now.
